MEMO ENDORSED

Re: United States v. Omar Adams,
20 Cr. 655 (KPF)

Dear Judge Failla:

I write to request that the Court adjourn Mr. Adams' sentencing, which is currently scheduled for September 14, by approximately 45 days. Specifically, I request that sentencing be rescheduled to any time October 24–27, any time November 1–3, or the morning of November 4.

This is my first request to adjourn sentencing. I make this request because an adjournment is necessary for the effective representation of Mr. Adams at sentencing given my own schedule and commitments to other clients, the need to prepare materials for sentencing, and Mr. Adams anticipated transition in his treatment.

AUSA Rebecca Dell informs me that the government has no objection to this request and is available on the proposed dates.

Sincerely,

/s/

Application GRANTED. The sentencing in this matter is hereby ADJOURNED to November 9, 2022, at 3:00 p.m.

The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate the motion at docket entry 50.

Dated: August 23, 2022
New York, New York

SO ORDERED.
